

Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it.

Hello from Central Mexico,

We are praising God for His work here in Valle de Santiago. The amount of darkness here is at times hard to believe. This area is steeped in false religion, Idolatry, drugs, and many other forms of iniquity. However, it is a great privilege to serve the Lord here.

Several weeks ago we had a woman attend one of our Church services. Afterward, she said that she wanted to be saved. My wife and I took her aside and clearly shared the way of salvation with her. At which point she happily received Christ as her Savior. Since then she has continued to come back to Church. We had given her a Bible and she told my wife that she reads it daily. Please pray for her as she has the consistent threat of violence where she lives.

I had a man in the Church talk to me this past week. His wife has faithfully attended our Church services, except for Sunday morning. She would sell items in the market on Sunday mornings. He told me, "Pastor, I decided that she would not sell in the market on Sunday mornings anymore so that she could be in Church for every service." He said "Pastor, now my phone is ringing all the time with new opportunities for me to work. God has been providing for our family abundantly in different ways." I was very encouraged to see them make a decision to obey God based on the principles in His Word, and then see the Lord provide for them in unique ways so that they assuredly knew that it was God meeting their needs.

We are hoping and praying about hosting our first Missions Conference this fall. Some of the people here have faithfully gone out with us each week to canvas with the precious Scriptures. We hope to take on missionaries and teach the people here how to be involved in World Wide Missions as well as reach the people in our own community at the same time.

Please continue to pray for us. We would like to see more come to know Christ as their personal Savior (Rodrigo, Fransisco, Enrique). Please pray for those who have been born again to follow the Lord in believers baptism. Also, please pray the Lord will mightily use us to make disciples here in the state of Guanajuato Mexico.

For the honor and glory of Christ Jesus,

Sincerely,

Chris King and Family
